Ostello San Miniato is located in San Miniato, a Medieval town on the famous Via Francigena and close to the main cities of art : Florence, Pisa, Lucca and Siena.

The town is just 40 minutes from Pisa and Florence Airports and the A-11 motorway.

The hostel is located in a two-floor building, which hosted a famous printing press for a long time and combines the charm of a historic building with the comfort of a modern accommodation.

It can host up to 13 people and it has two four-bed rooms and one five-bed room with two shared bathrooms.

The rooms are labelled with the names of famous pilgrims:
Nickolas, Abbot of a Benedictine Monastery in Iceland;
Sigeric, Bishop of Canterbury and Filippo Augusto, King of France.

The hostel features:

- * free Wi-Fi Internet connection
- * a fully-equipped kitchen
- * laundry & drying facilities
- * a computer and TV room
- * disabled facilities
